Important notice

Government regulations allow refunds of court fees in the Family Court of Western Australia if you have paid a full fee when you were entitled to an exemption or fee reduction under the regulations at the time the fee was paid. The regulations do not allow refunds for setting down fees.

The regulations allow refunds for hearing fees only if you have given written notice to the Court that the hearing is not to proceed or that the Court will be asked only to formalise the making of final orders on the day scheduled for the hearing (for example, when orders are made by consent). The regulations require you to give 10 business days notice.

For hearings called at short notice (that is when you are given less than 10 business days notice of the hearing) then only two business days notice is required if a hearing is not to proceed or will only be held to formalise the making of final orders. Again, you must give notice of the cancellation to the Court in writing.

The regulations allow for refunds of hearing fees if appearance at hearing was only to formalise the making of final orders, or the hearing does not proceed on the allocated day. You are not entitled to a refund if you only use part of a hearing day.

A conciliation conference fee can be refunded if the proceeding is settled or discontinued before the conference is held.

Warning: Under the Criminal Code any person who knowingly makes an untrue representation or statement to obtain a benefit or advantage from the State is guilty of an offence and, if found guilty, can be fined or imprisoned.
